“I refused to pay more for the same service.”

I needed to schedule a diagnostic mammogram so decided to reach out to my Health Guardian™ for help. I could go to a hospital office five minutes from my house that I'd been to before for $3,400 OR go to an independent clinic 10 miles farther away for $150.

Despite the cost difference, I opted to go to the hospital nearby and pulled into the parking lot the day of my appointment. All I could see were the doctor's fancy cars. I turned around, called the Health Guardian, and scheduled an appointment with the independent clinic. I could see where my money was going and felt empowered to take control.

“My son got the care he needed when he needed it.”

My son needed to see a dermatologist, but available appointments were 6-8 weeks out. I called a BowTie Health Guardian™, and they were able to schedule an appointment with a BowTie doctor for later that same day. The doctor was able to provide a virtual diagnosis and prescribe a treatment plan to get my son on the road to recovery.
