Healthcare

Medicare Supplements

Medigap coverage sold by private companies to supplement the “gaps” null by Original Medical Coverage. These are standard plans designed to supplement Part A & B for clients on Medicare.

Medicare Advantage

Medicare sponsored healthcare plans that are offered by private companies have contact with Medicare to provide Part A & B benefits, also shown as Part C. These plans can also offer Part D under one umbrella of care.

Hospital Indemnity Plan (HIP)

Protection plans designed to offset the large copayments incurred when admitted to a hospital. Although an indemnity plan, HIP's are most beneficial to those that have Medicare Advantage Plans.

Cancer Protection Plans

Protection plans designed to help pay for large medical and non-medical expenses related to treating and dealing with cancer.

Short-Term Care

Protection plans designed to help cover the costs associated with nursing home, skilled care, or intermediate care facilities after being released from the hospital.

Long-Term Care

Protection plans designed to help cover the costs associated with nursing home, skilled care, or intermediate care facilities after being released from the hospital.

Home Health Care

Protection plans designed to enable people to receive care within the counties of their own home as opposed to being required to stay in a nursing, skilled care, or intermediate care facility.

Capital

“Safe” Money Protection

Preservation plans designed to ensure that the money you set aside for retirement is kept safe so that you don't outlive it. Safety & Security with Growth!

Retirement Income

Provide retirement income that will last a lifetime. Protect your savings from financial risks such as market volatility or the need for long-term care expenses.

Life

Final Expense

Protection Plans designed to protect your personal legacy. Benefits from a final Expense Plan are typically used to cover the final expenses of the deceased.

Survivor Benefits

Protection Plans that pay a predetermined sum of money to the beneficiary upon the death of the insured. Term Life, Whole Life, and Universal Life are types of plans available designed to take care of survivors, as well as handle the final expenses of the deceased.
