

Disability Insurance

Provides a monthly benefit if you are disabled from a sickness or off-the-job injury

Think About This

Just over 1 in 4 of today's 20-year-olds will become disabled before they retire[†]

More than 40% of Americans cannot afford to pay an unexpected $500 medical bill^{}

Injuries such as fractures, sprains and strains are the most common short-term disability claims[‡]

If you get sick or have an accident, you may not be able to work for some time — and your monthly bills won't wait for you to recover. Disability Insurance can help you replace your lost income and protect your financial health.

Here's How It Works

- Select a monthly benefit to meet the needs of you and your family
- If totally disabled, you receive a benefit amount each month
- You receive a monthly cash benefit via check or direct deposit that you can use however you wish

Protecting Your Finances

You've worked hard for your savings – don't let a disability wipe them out.

- Protect your checking and savings
- Don't dip into your 401(k)

Protecting insureds for over 60 years

Meeting Your Needs

- Benefits start the first day after your elimination (waiting) period, when totally disabled and you cannot work
- Premiums are affordable and can be conveniently payroll deducted

Definitions

Total Disability - due to a sickness or injury, you are: (1) unable to perform the material and substantial duties of your own occupation; (2) under the regular care of a doctor; and (3) not working in any job for wage or profit (item 3 applies after you have been disabled for more than 12 months)

Partial Disability - due to a sickness or injury, you are: unable to perform the material and substantial duties of your own occupation on a full-time basis, but are able to work part-time; and under the regular care of a doctor

Elimination (Waiting) Period - a period of continuous total disability which must be satisfied before you are eligible to receive benefits
