

When you need care quickly

Knowing where to go can save you time and money

When you need care right away, the emergency room (ER) might be the first place that comes to your mind. However, the ER may not be the best choice in every situation. You have options when you have a sudden need for care, and knowing what they are can help you save time and money — and feel better sooner.

Where to go for care

Going to the ER or calling 911 is always your best option for emergencies. If it's not an emergency, you can see your primary care physician (PCP), have a virtual visit with a doctor, or go to a retail health clinic or urgent care center. This chart compares those options:¹

PCP

Usually available during normal business hours and may also provide medical advice by phone after hours

Virtual care

24/7 access to doctors through the SydneySM Health app, no appointment needed

Retail health clinic

Walk-in care clinics located in certain drugstores and major retailers

Urgent care center

Stand-alone facilities, open extended hours

In addition to using a telehealth service, you can receive in-person or virtual care from your own doctor or another healthcare provider in your plan's network. If you receive care from a doctor or healthcare provider not in your plan's network, your share of the costs may be higher. You may also receive a bill for any charges not covered by your health plan.

Sydney Health is offered through an arrangement with Carelon Digital Platforms, a separate company offering mobile application services on behalf of your health plan. @2024
